

➡ The Food Court (Entry from either side of building 52 (Sharet Bldg)). The food court offers a variety of different foods: a McDonalds, a mostly-vegan restaurant (Soup, Casseroles, Pick-and-choose salad bar, sandwiches and fresh juices) And a lovely Italian place. There is also a place offering Shawarma, and a hot meal including meat\chicken\fish and a couple of sidedishes

➡ The "Caccao" Café (entry from across the food court). The court comprises:
The coffee shop, which offers pastries and/or light lunch such as grilled cheese sandwich, salads, pastas and more.

1. A vegetarian stand (soups, hot dishes and pick-and-choose salads)*
2. A Humus and Falafel stand (traditional middle-eastern foods.)
3. Humus is a paste made of chickpeas, and Falafels are deep-fried chickpea balls.*
4. A small stand offering pasta and sauce of your choice - the dish is cooked on the spot.
5. A minimarket where you can buy snacks, bottled drinks, sandwiches (not so recommended) and more.

* make sure you order from the cashier at the café first, then bring the receipt to the stand.

➡ "Shesek" food court, (Building 25 Kaploon) if coming from "Schreiber" building, it's down on the left in the middle of the long hallway.
Comprises a pick-and-choose salad bar, a pasta stand (made on the spot), and hot dishes (meat\chicken\fish\vegan) with some sidedishes.
Also, a Coffee stand with some very recommended big cookies.

⇒ The "Aroma" Café (building 47 "Beit HawTfootzot") easiest access across from Shreiber. Great high-quality sandwiches, Salads and pastries. Highly recommended coffee. Please note: no meat. Vegan-friendly.

⇒ Yet another "Shesek" food court, (Building 96 Naftali)

⇒ The Guilman Coffee shop (building 34 Guilman) ground floor. Coffee, pasteries and a Kiosk. Also pick-and-choose salad bar, a pasta stand, a "dish of the day" (dairy) and a meaty-sandwiches stand, which is recommended.

Outside the campus (Leave at the main gate you'll see it on your right) you can find a couple of places, to enjoy in case you feel like treating yourself, or if it is late in the evening and everything inside campus is closed:

King George: A restaurant. Starters, Main dishes and desserts. The place also offers business menu during lunch time, and some alcoholic drinks. All and all a nice, affordable place.

Ha'hug Ha'Tzfonee: A pub. Serves Pasta, hot meals (chicken/meat/tofu), bar snacks and affordable alcoholic drinks. The place offers activities such as a pool table.
