

Group theory, ring theory, module theory.

In the beginning I will go over Galois theory,
but I assume that you have seen this before.

Later in the course I will deal with L-functions. So you are supposed to know basics of complex analysis - I will try not to overload this part.