

I intend to go briefly over the first part of the course but the assumption is that you basically know things from there. I will try to make cohomological part self contained.